

Sandbach Voices Celebrate 60 Years of Singing

The highlight of Sandbach Voices 60th Anniversary year is a performance of Brahms Requiem on March 15 at St. Mary's Church Sandbach.

We are fortunate to have secured the services of Elizabeth Watts, Soprano. Elizabeth, a graduate of the Royal College of Music, studied on the Advanced Opera studies course at the Benjamin Britten International Opera School. She graduated in 2005 with distinction and the Queen Elizabeth the Queen Mother Rose Bowl, awarded annually for outstanding achievement. Most recently she represented England at the 2007 Cardiff Singer of the World Competition, reaching the final and winning the prestigious Rosenblatt Song Prize. This follows in the wake of other recent awards including the 2006 Kathleen Ferrier Prize, the 2007 Outstanding Young Artist Award at the "MIDEM Classique Awards" in Cannes, and a nomination for the 2007 RPS Young Artist of the Year Award.

This is a very special opportunity to listen to Elizabeth singing the requiem with the choir and to hear her giving a solo recital performance.

The concert performance will be on Saturday 15th March at St. Mary's Church, Sandbach at 7:30 pm.

Admission is £10 and accompanied children under the age of 16 will be admitted without charge.

Tickets are usually available at the door but because of the anticipated popularity of this concert, tickets may be obtained in advance from 01244 540511 or from 01270 841727.

Sandbach Voices always welcome new singers, men or women. There is no audition, all you need is a love of music. Rehearsals are every Tuesday evening at 7:30 pm in the Hancock Hall at the rear of Wheelock Methodist Church.
